The NSW VET in Schools Student of the Year Award is presented to a Year 11 or 12 school student who is undertaking accredited vocational education and training as part of their HSC studies.

Eligibility Criteria
Nominees must:

• be a permanent resident of Australia and undertaking training in New South Wales;
• be undertaking accredited vocational education and training as part of their HSC studies;
• still be enrolled in school;
• not be nominated for a School-Based Apprenticeship or Traineeship Award; and
• only be nominated by one nominator.

Preparing your application

Nominator Comments
As a nominator of the individual, please briefly explain the reasons for making this nomination. (500 word limit)

You may want to cover their:
» training/studies
» industry knowledge
» personal skills

Nominators can be the individual’s teacher or trainer from their school or registered training organisation (RTO).

Note: This information will act as a ‘support letter of endorsement’ for this nominee/individual.

Section A: Overview
Provide a short overview covering a description of the qualification you enrolled in, your registered training organisation or school as well as your reason for choosing this industry and training pathway. (300 word limit)

Note: This information will not be considered or used for judging purposes, but it may be used as your summary throughout the Awards process.

For more information or assistance with your application
NSW.TrainingAwards@det.nsw.edu.au
www.trainingawards.nsw.gov.au
1800 306 999
Section B: Entry Criteria

Applicants are required to address each criteria and will be assessed against each criterion.

In your application, you must present your information in a way that clearly addresses the award criteria. Judging panels will be looking for evidence of how your training has contributed to your career and study plans, to the development of your skills and your achievements to date, as well as any way in which your training may have helped you to achieve other qualities and pursuits.

In developing your application, you may wish to take into account some of the considerations outlined below. These considerations are not additional criteria, but are provided to give clarification of what may be relevant to include when writing against the criteria.

Criterion 1: Career and study achievements (400 word limit)
Consider things such as:
- Why did you choose your course?
- How has it changed or impacted on you?
- What have you gained from it?
- How has your training assisted your skills development?

Criterion 2: Team and communication skills (400 word limit)
Consider any skills you have developed through your training, such as:
- What have you been able to tell others, students, mates etc. about your training?
- What do you like about working in a team setting?
- What traits do you think are important to positively influence others?

Criterion 3: Ability to be an Ambassador (representative) for training in NSW (400 word limit)
Tell us about:
- Examples where you have taken a leadership role inside or outside of school?
- What other activities have you been involved in where you have been a representative?
- How would you describe the quality of your training?

Criterion 4: Other qualities and pursuits (400 word limit)
You may wish to include information about:
- Have you had to address any challenges that have impacted on your training?
- When have you been required to use initiative either in your training or your personal life?
- What other qualities or activities do you feel would be useful in your role as VET in Schools Student of the Year?
- What other community involvement have you had?

Supporting Attachments
The award criteria should be the focus of your nomination; however any relevant evidence may be provided to support your nomination. Any supporting attachment is to be referenced in your application.

Consider including:
- Registered Training Organisation (RTO) Certificate
  A copy of your RTO certificate in regards to this award (if you completed your qualification prior to submitting your application).
- Awards and prizes
  Copies of any certificates or prizes you may have been awarded (since leaving secondary school) such as a sporting award, community service award or special recognition by your employer.
- Resume
  A copy of your resume
- Reference or letter of support
  A reference or letter of support from either your employer/host employer, trainer or teacher.
- Workplace/training action photos
  Action photos of you in your workplace or in training. See ‘Photography Brief’.

Applications close 13 March 2020

Cover photo: Kelsey Commons, 2019 NSW VET in Schools Student of the Year